Price includes pick-up of the pet from and delivery of the cremains back to your veterinarian's office within the Amarillo and Canyon area. Cremains are in an inner plastic bag, and you have the choice of either a velvet bag (burgundy, navy blue, or black) embroidered in gold-color thread with a line from the Rainbow Bridge Poem ("Until We Meet Again At The Rainbow Bridge") or a commercial-grade plastic urn which we recommend if you are considering burying the cremains. Also included is a cremation certificate (verifying that you are receiving your pet's cremains only) and several poems, some of which are personalized with your pet's name. Cremations are performed in the order in which we receive the pets. We normally ask four (4) business days, not including the day we receive your pet, to complete the cremation, although the service may not take that long. Private viewing and/or same day service is available upon request for an additional cost.

Price includes pick-up from your veterinarian's office (although you may transport your pet to the Critter Camp office yourself with no alteration in price). The communal cremation is the ideal service for those who want the peace of mind of knowing the final chapter in their pet's life is completed with dignity but who do not wish to have the pet's cremains returned to them. This is a no-frill service where your pet will be cremated with other pets whose owners have the same desire as you. The cremains have their final resting place scattered over our cemetery located across the street from our sanctuary.

Burials are performed as soon as weather allows. Rain, snow, and freezing temperatures are several of the factors which affect when a burial is able to be done. Markers are ordered from our supplier on the day we receive your desired content. When the marker will be available greatly depends upon our supplier's workload. All God's Critters does everything within its power to take care of your pet in as expedient a manner as possible.

*The Perpetual Care Fund is a trust fund set up to maintain Critter Camp's cemetery in perpetuity to give you the peace of mind of knowing your pet's last resting place will always be there. This fund replaces the requirement of a yearly maintenance fee.
